

St. Martin-in-the-Fields High School for Girls Governing Board as at 8 January 2018

The school is an academy and therefore a charitable company. It currently has three 'members' who appoint most of the governors upon nomination by others. Governors are directors as well as trustees. How the governing body should be made up is set out in the company's Articles. Terms of office are for 4 years except for ex officio¹ posts or as stated. Some governors may have been reappointed following an earlier term.
